MAYOR Pierce is putting in some good sanitary work for the city.

There is interesting Democratic times and Kentucky's day to look.

Derives the past month 21,345 new pension certificates were issued.

THERE were 2,130,000 pounds of tobacco raised in this county last year.

The Republicans have failed to make a nomination for Representative in Hancock.

HAS anybody heard from Bro. Harner since the great Democratic outpouring at Hardinsburg, May 2.

JUDGE M. H. Owsley, a prominent Kentucky lawyer, died at his home in Lancaster last week from pneumonia.

The Breckinridge delegation will vote solid for John Young Brown as first choice for Governor, and for P. Wat Harlin second, to-day.

JOHN G. Carlisle, will be made permanent chairman, and James E. Stone, Secretary, of the Democratic Convention, which meets in Louisville to-day.

The cold wave which extended over the Central and Northern States last week, brought some ice and frost, in its train and great damage has been done to fruits and early vegetables.

It is reported that Hon. Reuben Miller, ex-State Inspector, now of Owensboro, will nominate the Hon. John Young Brown, for Governor, in the Democratic State Convention.

This character of poison which did the deadly work among a half dozen people at the Snooks-Herr wedding is still baffling the skill of many prominent physicians and chemists in Louisville.

BRO. Harner once in a time strayed away from the Democratic ranks, and in renewing his faith, swore, that if the Lord, and his party would forgive him for that offence, as would never be guilty of the like again, and now where is he? May the Lord have mercy on him.

HON. W. E. Minor was one of the original Brown men in this county. He did as much to give that gentleman a following here as any man in the county. And yet, he was completely ignored when it came to naming the delegates. He wasn't even given an alternate's place.

President Polk, of the National Farmers Alliance, says the farmers of the country will not elect Mr. Cleveland for the Presidency. But it is quite probable that there are many back districts which Mr. Polk has not yet heard from.

THE people of Kentucky should read the new Constitution for themselves and decide whether it is such an instrument as they wish to be governed by in the future. If it doesn't meet the whims of some of the would be leaders of public thought throughout the state counts for nothing.

THE call made for H. Severs, at the Universal convention at Hardinsburg, and the universal greeting he received from the Democrats present at that meeting, say about five hundred in number, is a very strong indication that the candidacy is looked upon with favor by the entire party in the county, and that all will assist in his election at the contest in August next.

THE report of the New Orleans grand jury into the investigation of the Hennessy's murderers brings to light a deplorable state of affairs existing in the criminal calendar in that city. The report says that for years past the lawless element there have practically had things their own way in their courts. Faced juries, bribed witnesses, and the tongs generally, have gotten into the courts, and a conviction of the law-breakers seems to have been almost an impossibility. The best element in the city is calling for a new deal, and a right investigation of crime in the future.

THE American Citizens Equal Rights Association, (colored) in session at Cincinnati, has again called the attention of the Administration to the fact that the colored man in the north is getting no offices from Uncle Sam. How can the Administration furnish to the negro a thing it hasn't got. Since the Episcopalian party went into power the great cry has been for more offices and more hoodie, all down the line until brother Ben has practically exhausted the supply.

THAT was the proper thing Hon. W. E. Minor did in the County Convention two weeks ago, when he moved a reconsideration of the vote by which our county refused to instruct for Hon. M. C. Allard, for Lieutenant Governor. It is always in order to do the right thing at the right time, and Mr. Minor took the situation at once. Hon. M. C. Allard is a most worthy gentleman and as chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee, did gallant service for his party and his state; and for a Democratic candidate to refuse to give him his instructions under the circumstances would have been political treason.

SECRETARY Blaine is reported seriously ill in New York.

The Southern Baptist Convention now in session at Birmingham, Ala., raised $100,000 for the benefit of the Louisville Baptist Theological Seminary.

PRESIDENT Harrison was presented with a silver brick at Louisville, Col., last Monday. If he will come this way we will present him with a silver brick worth its weight in gold for paying purposes.

THE three H's, Harlin, Hendrick and Hale, will be the winning combination at the Democratic Derby, and Kingman at Churchill Downs to-day. This is a sure tip from Wick Moorman.

WILL, who would have thought it, John Monarch getting married. However, it is the wisest and best thing a man can do, and we are glad so good a man as our friend John has come to his senses.

THAT was a very disgraceful piece of conduct by some young men of our country from near Louisville, on an excursion train on the Louisville, St. Louis and Texas railroad last week. Too much respect they did the business. But in the future some of them may consider the consequences, before they proceed to "fill up" and make things hot aboard a railroad train again. Each of them deserves a heavy fine for such conduct, as a reminder that the kids can't take a railroad train or run a gag on respectable people when ever they want to, in peaceful old Breckinridge.

IS the Republican State Convention which meets at Lexington on the 20th last, there some one who is levelly skimming over the nomination of a candidate for Governor on that ticket. Col. Wm. O'Brady has dropped clear out of the ring, and will not be in the fight except possibly as best man for one of the candidates. Col. A. T. Wood, of Mt. Sterling, and Hon. John W. Lewis, of Springfield, are contesting the honors for this nomination, and it is said they are getting up a pretty warm fight. Some of the counties have sent instructed delegates, but most of the delegates will go uninstructed, which leaves the matter in great doubt as to who the coming Republican candidate is to be. From the best information at hand, however, Hon. A. T. Wood is said to be in the lead.

Mr. Tom. Bishop, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Bishop, of this place, died at his home here last Monday, after a long illness. He had been in ill health for some time, but nothing serious was apprehended until last Sunday, when heart trouble set up which resulted in death. He was in his twenty-second year.
There was a good crowd of people in town last Saturday and trade seemed to be much better than common. Business that has been going to the little stores along the railroad, will gradually drift back to the larger towns, owing to the latter being unable to supply the demands made upon them for the variety of goods needed.

Smoke the World cigar.

The fruit crop is not hurt in this section.

Meal in any quantity for sale at Star Mills.

Three well filled couches passed up yesterday.

A nice lot of straw mitting just received at Sulzer's.

Remember the K. P. festival next Wednesday night.

Born, May 9th, to the wife of Israel Holder, a daughter.

Cloverport will send a large delegation to Louisville today.

Cloverport is furnishing Hardinsburg with her dressed beef.

Dr. J. C. Bush will be at the Napper House until Saturday.

New potatoes, beans, peas, radishes, onions, cabbage, daily—Sulzer's.

There were two additions to the Elm Street Methodist church last Sunday.

Run of any amount for sale at Star Mills at 85 cents per hundred pounds.

Capt. William Vest has a silk hat that is 38 years old and looks as good as new.

Just received at C. C. Martin's drug store fresh greens, cabbage, Irish and sweet potatoes.

Marshall Geo. Jordan went to Louisville yesterday to be in good shape for the convention today.

Strawberries are selling at fifty cents per gallon. The market opened last week at seventy-five cents.

Vic Bowmer, of Hardinsburg, has a position in the grocery department of Bowmer & Hamblenton.

There will be Children's day services in the Elm Street Methodist church next Sunday. Let all attend.

Died, little Ethel Harris, infant daughter, of Mrs. and George Harris, April 20th, of a gripple.

Did you notice the people on our streets Saturday night and did it remind you that this town is growing?

Bro. Brandon don't believe in Sunday excursions, and advised his members Sunday to let them severely alone.

Hood's Sarsaparilla has the largest sale of any medicine before the public. Any honest druggist will confirm this statement.

Charlie Furrow has a very remarkable hen. She has laid 62 eggs this Spring, beating the record of all other birds of her kind.

A strawberry and ice cream supper will be given by the ladies of the Baptist church, at Fisher's Hall, on Tuesday night, June 2nd.

Rev. W. K. Penrod has been absent for the past week attending the Southern Baptist Convention, at Birmingham, Ala. He is expected home today.

Mr. J. A. Barry, of Concordia, was here last week. Mr. Barry likes this town and will move his family here as soon as he can secure a house.

Fresh bananas, oranges, lemons, coconuts, stick candy and nuts of all kinds for sale by C. C. Martin druggist and pharmacist, next door to post office.

We need more residences, good ones to rent. Many a good citizen is lost to this town just for this reason. Let our capitalist put a little money in good houses.

The K. P.'s have decided to have that strawberry and ice cream festival they have been talking about for two weeks. Next Wednesday night is the time, 7 o'clock the hour, and Fisher's Hall the place. The strawberry will be the finest and the cream, Kline's best, so come out everybody and spend an enjoyable evening. A splendid band of music will be in attendance.

Fresh vegetables received daily—Sulzer's.

Mr. Hamche will be here every Friday of each week to accommodate people who need a handsome suit of clothes. There are no dukes in this town, thank you, Mr. Enquirer.

Prof. Powell, of Havesville, came up Sunday and delivered two very interesting discourses in the Baptist church. Prof. Powell is principal of the Havesville High school.

The fishing in Clover Creek for the past week has been very fine. Dr. Hamblenton was the hero so far, in the size of fish caught, having successfully angled two handsome bachelors, measuring each 18 inches in length.

Harry Monroe is now making regular trips with his wagon to this city from Hardinsburg, every other day. Any one having small packages or parcels to send either from here, or Hardinsburg, can have them promptly delivered.

Every merchant and business man in this town begins now to appreciate the value of our machine shops and brick plant. Seven or eight hundred dollars per week paid out for labor makes a big difference in trade. The beauty about it is, it is all our own.

Mr. Lee Cullen, the popular express messenger on the "Texan" was married last week to Miss May Brown, a very attractive young lady of Owensboro. They will make their future home in Louisville.

The band was out Saturday night and gave us an excellent concert. It had a large and appreciative audience. The boys are getting better every week. They have an excellent leader in Prof. Cook, who is bringing them out in fine style.

This will be a gala week in Louisville. The special attractions are the May Festival, the Democratic Convention, and the Spring Races. The "Texan" offers special inducements on their road to all who wish to attend in the way of one fare for the round trip.

A petition to the post-office department protesting against the discontinuance of the mail route from this place to Mattingly, six miles south of us. The object is for discontinuing the service is not known, unless it is to cut off a few people out there from a daily service, which they are justly entitled to.

The regular annual meeting of the stockholders of the Breckenridge Bank, was held in the office of the bank last Saturday. The old board of directors were re-elected. The directors elected the old officers. The directors ordered the bank painted and papered and put in first-class order.

Mr. Sam Sulzer, the merchant prince, is determined to keep pace with the times, and make his establishment in this city equal to the demands of Cloverport's growing trade and population. He is turning his place once a barn of a house, into a regular trade place.

The News commends Mr. Sulzer's efforts in this direction to others in this town. Get out of the old ways, and the old rules of business and keep pace with the times.

Logan Pate, Deputy U. S. Marshal and Chris Ahl, captured Joe Buck Patterson, a notorious out-law, who has been evaluating the officers and been in hiding in the upper part of the state with the place to Mattingly, six miles south of us.

He was wanted at Fondville, where he had been selling whiskey without license. Patterson it seems has cleaned up all the officers in Grayson county as well as the sheriff of Ohio, and has been rather poor against being captured, until Logan Pate and Chris Ahl run up on him. He is now safe in the Davies county jail, where he will remain until the next session of the Federal court here.

Mr. John T. Ditto has accepted a position with the well known hat house of Swan, Abraham & Co., Louisville, and will be on the road in a short time with a splendid line of samples. Mr. Ditto will represent one of the best hat houses in the city of Louisville, and with his push and energy we bespeak for him and his house a full share of the trade.

The merchants who read this notice and say hats will confer quite a favor on the News, and likewise Mr. Ditto if they order him a small introductory order. Give the young man a chance, not only Ditto but every other young man, who starts out to make an honest living.

At the Brick Plant.

The big engine and boiler arrived last week and are now being placed in position.

Two of the kilns will be completed this week, that is, the brick work.

The gas well is down 300 feet.

A neat office has been erected, apart from the main buildings, for the use of Manager Oelze and his clerk.

The engine is a one hundred horse power machine and is one of the largest and finest in the country. Mr. Geo. Harris will be the engineer.

The buildings and kilns with their big smoke stacks will make a big showing for that end of the town.

Mr. Morgan, the superintendent of the works, has promised to furnish the News at an early date, a paper on the process of manufacturing vitrified brick, which will be of much interest to our people.

The company has already had an offer of a contract for 2,000,000 brick for the city of Evansville, Ind. They prefer to wait and test their machinery before contracting. There will be no trouble along this line. They will have a demand for every brick they can make.

Two car loads of machinery arrived yesterday.

A vein of genuine Tennessee marble was struck in the gas well yesterday.

President J. K. McCracken and Mr. C. F. Applegate, a Director, Louisville, were down yesterday viewing the plant.

De Witt's Little Early Risers never give or cause nausea. Mild but sure, assist rather than force. Best little pill for sick headache, chronic constipation, dyspepsia. Sold by G. W. Short.

Louisville Ky. Amphitheatre Auditorium The Duff Opera Company

Engagement, Marie Tempest

Prima Donna, May 20-23

To keep up with the May festivities in Louisville, the management of the Auditorium announces the appearance of Marie Tempest and the J. C. Duff big Opera Company, May 20, 21, 22, 23, in a carefully selected repertory Rod Husar, Bohemian Girl, Carmen and Dorothy.

"Dorothy" as produced by the Duff Opera Company at the present time has met universal success. Every one is familiar with the delightful little romance that is unfolded in this opera.

Squire Rantan with his pet scheme, the marriage of his daughter, is a well known friend; the gay, rollicking Geoffroy Wilder and his scarcely less jovial friend, Sherwood; the sly old lurcher always on the alert for available assets, if only a "wooden leg" or a "black bull" are well known characters. Then there is the vivacious, but timid Lydia, the dainty Phyllis, and the bosom Mrs. Privet. But these are not all in the present Dorothy. Louisville has yet to see "Dorothy" in the flesh, to hear Marie Tempest and when she is once heard in this opera no other Dorothy will do.

"The Red Hussar" has generally been regarded as Miss Tempest's forte, and undoubtedly much of the success which has attended that production has been due to her individuality, but those who have seen "Dorothy" with and without her, are convinced that this opera is equally in need of her presence, and that it is not "Dorothy" without her. The real characters which she assumes in "Dorothy" are both creations of her own, and at the same time both are opposite to that of the "Red Hussar," a distinctly masculine character and yet portrayed in such a marvellous manner that the sex of the artist is not for a moment forgotten.

In the J. C. Duff organization she is surrounded by splendid talent. Miss Irving secures her in the various scenes in "Dorothy" particularly in the famous dual scene in the third act, Miss Lenore Snyder is a charming artist, gifted with an excellent voice and great personal beauty.

The tenor of the company, Mr. Chas. Bassett, is the happy possessor of a voice of great purity and strength. Mr. McLaughlin has only to be heard to become a great favorite. In fact the entire company is such that will create a most favorable impression, as the Duff always brings a big company.

The chorus of 100 artists, while the orchestra will have thirty musicians from the Chicago Auditorium.

Those desiring seats for the engagement at the Amphitheatre should write Mr. James B. Camp, Business Manager, P. O. Box 63, Louisville, who will see that all orders are promptly and carefully filled. Prices $1, 75, 50, cents, according to location. All lines of transportation entering Louisville give reduced rates of one-half fare.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT.

May Excursion Rates.

S. A. WILKES,
General Passenger Agent.

The Louisville Market.

There is little to be said about the tobacco market this week. Receipts continue to decrease and offering are drawn largely from stocks on hand, and embrace a large proportion of reviews. Good and fine Maryland leaf is scarce, and when offered sells high. Grades below good leaf may be had but at irregularly high. When a line of this character of tobacco is offered buyers exhibit occasionally an indifference and apathy that causes prices to be depressed and the market seems to drug; and, perhaps, at the next house a systematic demand seems to occur and none beholdens of this class sell high enough. All together the market is hard to quote.

Dark tobacco is in strong position. It is offered sparingly and good dark leaf is especially scarce. One hoghead of this grade sold Thursday to Mr. Landrum for McDonald & Co., of Canada, for $12 Lower grades of dark were steady and firm and sold quite up to our outside quotations.—Farmers Home Journal.
